

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stretton, of 936 Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, were recently honored by their many friends and relatives on the occasion of their 51st wedding anniversary, who wished the popular Arlington couple many years of continued happiness and health.

Ducks On Parade, Stage Their Own Celebration

Staging their own Fourth of July celebration, although a trifle belatedly, a wild duck and three baby ducklings, escorted by a tiny baby robin, on Friday morning caused more traffic tie-ups than Arlington's entire Fourth celebration, when the group marched across Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, directly in the face of two way traffic, to be finally rescued and escorted to a safe home at Spy Pond.

Acting as master of ceremonies at the memorable event, Dog Officer Femia, responded nobly to a peremptory summons while at his office, to provide a safe and immediate escort for the unperturbed quintet, after a group of boys reported the group as on the march near Mill street.

Officer Femia, accompanied by John Sacca, of Appleton street, noted pigeon fancier, proceeded to entice the tiny ducklings and the baby robin, with the mother duck, into the temporary safe haven of a pasteboard carton, whence both rescuers and the rescued proceeded to the shores of Spy Pond. Here it was first noted that the straggler of the group was in reality a robin and not a smaller member of the duck family.

Officer Femia stated that the mother duck then herded her own offspring onto her back, taking them to a safe spot and returning to care for her protegee, the baby robin.

It was Joseph Palmer, of Jason street, who first called the attention of Officer Femia to the dangerous predicament of the little wild celebrants.

KIWANIANS PLAN FISHING PARTY

At the recent meeting of the Arlington Kiwanis club, plans for a fishing party to be held off the coast of Gloucester, to help defray the expenses of the club's charity fund, the date of which will be shortly announced in these columns were announced. The guest speaker of the meeting was the chief of the Waltham Field station. Delegates and alternates to the New England district convention, to be held at Old Orchard beach on September 8, 9, & 10, were also named.

Organize Military Manpower Committee In Arlington

Captain Ralph D. Eames, public information officer for the Army and Air Force voluntary enlistment program, has announced the formation of an Arlington Military Manpower Committee for the purpose of increasing and correlating civilian support here.

Elected chairman at the first meeting of the group of community leaders was Mrs. Stanley R. Kingman, of 21 Gould Road, a prominent civic and patriotic organizer and worker. The committee also elected E. Stanley Beck, of 64 Chester St., to serve as secretary of the committee.

The Army and Air Force Recruiting Service appeals to the people in the many communities throughout the nation to unite in a diligent effort to obtain the much needed additional recruits. Arlington Soldier Killed In New Jersey Automobile Crash

Sgt. James F. Roper Had Returned After Visit Here

An Arlington father of two small children, who re-enlisted in the Army three weeks ago, was killed with two companions early on Tuesday morning, in a fatal automobile accident in Hamilton Township, New Jersey.

Sgt. James F. Roper, 29, whose home was at 20 Pierce Street, Arlington, had been home over the week end and had just returned to Fort Dix.

Others involved in the accident were identified as Sgt. Clarence Appleby, 42, of Battery C, 42nd Anti-Aircraft Artillery, Fort Dix and Sgt. George W. Bates, 28, of Stamford, Conn. The three soldiers were instantly killed.

Police state that the soldiers were killed early on Tuesday morning after turning their station wagon down the wrong lane of Route 25, smashing head-on into a truck.

The trio had apparently turned east on the westbound lane of the double highway, on the way back to Fort Dix from Trenton. They went past two cargo trucks and smashed into the third, police said. The truck driver, Raymond N. McGee, 27, of Frankford, Delaware, suffered minor injuries. The three soldiers were dead on arrival at St. Francis hospital, Trenton.

McGee told police he pulled over as far as he could on the westbound lane of the highway, separated by a safety island from the eastbound lane, but was unable to avoid the collision with the wrong-way car. Following the accident, he helped to drag the three bodies out of the demolished station wagon.

Roper, who served in the Pacific area during the war, attended the Arlington high school.

In addition to his widow, he leaves one daughter, Kathleen, aged two years, a son, Bruce, eight months, and his mother, Mrs. Alice Roper, of this town.

Sgt. Roper was due soon for a furlough before embarking for service in Japan, his widow said today. Mrs. Roper was planning to follow her husband to Japan later, accompanied by her two children.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mr. Whitman is in good health and again this summer is looking after both flower and vegetable gardens at his place. He says he owes his longevity to moderation in living, and he is an adherent of the old saying—"Early to bed and early to rise, etc."

A native of New Albany, Nova Scotia, Mr. Whitman has resided in this town since 1922. Previous to that time, he lived in Somerville for 42 years and still earlier, resided in Lawrence for a period of ten years.

His daughter, Miss Bertha M. Whitman, lives with him. Mr. Whitman also has a sister, Mrs. Mittie A. Smith, of North Yarmouth, Maine, who is 92, and a brother, Lawrence Whitman, of

New Howard Johnson Opens In Arlington Centre

This week saw the opening of a De Luxe Howard Johnson Restaurant on Mass. Ave. in the Centre. Whether it's a snack or dinner; an ice cream cone or sundae, you can rest assured the quality is of the best. We suggest a visit to this new Howard Johnson.

"Wasting Water"

The long hot spell and the lack of rain has imperilled the water supply in many areas.

The danger has been so acute at times that officials in many places have found it necessary to call upon citizens to refrain from watering their lawns and flower beds in order to conserve the meagre supply.

This to some seems like a harsh order, but in many cases it is a necessary one, and the citizen should comply without protest.

Although Arlington is not in such a dire strait for water as many towns find themselves, we should heed the warning and use the water with common sense and moderation.

As a matter of fact, much of the water which is used on lawns and flower beds is wasted. To do any real good, it is necessary to soak a dry lawn or garden for hours at a time. Brief sprinkling, which is a common custom, does more harm than good and wastes water at the same time.

It is a sad sight to see a lawn which was once lush and green, become brown and parched almost overnight. But it should also be remembered, that during severe periods of drought, it is a very difficult thing to prevent the burning out of the lawn and great quantities of water are wasted yearly trying in vain to save them.

OUTDOOR WRESTLING AT MEDFORD BOWL

Outdoor wrestling will get under way with glamour on Monday, July 25, at the Medford Bowl, Revere Beach Parkway, Medford, when Miss Nell Stewart, who was picked as "Miss Chic of 1946" and who represented her state at the famed Atlantic City beauty contest, is matched in the feature of the evening against Cecilia Blevins of Oklahoma. Two other bouts will be on the card. Wrestling under the outdoor lights is scheduled to be held until fall.

Miss Stewart, since she entered the wrestling field a short time ago has won the favor of fans wherever she has appeared. On July 25, the patrons of the Medford Bowl will see beauty and glamor combined with wrestling skill as Nell meets her adversary.

The principals on the other two bouts on the program will be announced later.
